June 21, 2011
Business Meeting

Elections:

"Decisions are made by those who show up"
Please attend this important meeting and help select the officers and directors for our next NAWIC year.

Speakers:

The Smart Girls

Hunt Ortmann is proud to announce the launching of a new initiative focusing on women in the construction industry. Associate attorneys Marian Selvaggio and Kathlynn Smith are the co-authors of the Smart Girls' Guide To Construction Law and the architects of the Smart Girls' Network. The Smart Girls' mission is to connect and support women-owned and/or operated companies in the construction industry. To further this mission, the Smart Girls recently published the inaugural issue of the Smart Girls' Guide™, which is a periodic publication written for the construction professional providing legal tips and understandable breakdowns of legal principles. In addition to the Smart Girls' Guide™, the Smart Girls give lively and informative presentations to industry professionals on a wide-range of legal topics affecting the construction industry today.

Our Scholarship winner will be our guest at this meeting. Thank you Marian and Kathlynn

Region 12 Forum

I attended May 13 and 14th Forum in Buelton hosted by Central California Coast Chapter 174. Those of us that went had a great time. The motivational speakers were terrific. My favorite speaker was Jean Steel, Keeping the Workplace Well. You can take a look at Jean on her website:

happypeoplewin.com

If you have never been to a conference or Forum please consider attending. The benefits of meeting with members from other chapters and networking are well worth the cost.
